Jane Donde

Denver, CO | 303-555-0112 | jdonde@email.com

Summary

Detail-oriented Java Developer with three years of experience in developing unique programming solutions for web applications. Skilled in developing user friendly web applications, debugging written code and writing unique code to solve technology problems.

Education

Twin Rivers University
Bachelor's in computer science

Experience

Blue Valley Technology Group I Denver, CO,   June 2021- Current Java Developer

- Participate in lifecycle development for three web applications ● Update existing client web applications by analyzing current web specifications, reviewing web traffic and proofreading established code ● Collaborate with customers and other developers to determine project needs and technical concerns
- Troubleshoot website codes to identify and correct errors that improved website usability
- Write website instructional manuals to help educate stakeholders about website construction

Tennent Technologies I Denver, CO,   May 2019 – May 2021
Java Developer Intern

- Developed interactive designs to promote a positive user experience ● Performed website testing to identify errors and other items that might detract from a user's experience
- Wrote code under the direction of a Java developer and reviewed final website codes

Certifications

- Oracle Certified Associate Java Programmer

Skills

- Troubleshooting
- Java programming language
- Attention to detail
- Problem-solving Communication
- Object-oriented programming